NeoBarcino Seat

The NeoBarcino seat is a very cost effective range of street furniture that correlates paramount quality and a great utilitarian design. The seat mixes futuristic arm rests with traditional wooden slats. A new design to the Falco portfolio, the NeoBarcino brings a fresh European feel and is ideal for modern developments and locations whether public or private, urban or country.

- The NeoBarcino seat is also available in a long version seat; please see below for further specification.
- The robust steel armrests are rust resistant and the hardwood is treated.
- Optionally the bench is available in FSC hardwood and is also available in a blue and green shade of colour upon request.
- AG3 cast aluminium legs can be used upon request.
