Urbis Seat

Also from City Design, the Urbis seat also has a classical feel but with clean lines, this is another new model in the Falco range. The Urbis has a sleek design with nostalgic details.

The backrest is slightly bent backwards for a pleasant seat and as with most Falco seating, the Urbis also available as a bench without a backrest. The seat is equipped with two metal plates (one on each support) for bolting to the ground.

ARTIKELNUMMER: 37.716.800
